Aggie As An Interviewer

Aggie. puts EVERYTHING forth! An excellent interviewer who puts you at ease and encourages you to open-up and share. (She) persistently acts on her passions...and producing professional interviews, shows through her expertise. Aggie thoroughly researches each subject, and perfects the results into a read that interested viewers tremendously enjoy. A real pleasure to work with."

Jo-Anne Vandermeulen, author of Premium Promotional Tips for Writers

"Aggie Villanueva just did this amazing interview with me and I was blown away how quickly this smart lady put her head around what I do. She picked up on my soft spot for women and that I want as many of them to succeed in their careers as I can get my hands on. She took a look at my speaker and author website and somehow managed to combine the both, which I even haven't been able to do, quite brilliantly."

Beate Chelette, Photography Business Success Coach

"Thanks, Aggie, this has been great. Most reviewers want to put me in pre-existing boxes and genres. It's been a wonderful pleasure to talk to someone who really gets what I'm trying to do."

Bill Myers, bestselling author of Eli

"Aggie has few peers as an interviewer. She does her homework, asks layered questions that illuminate the writer's core, and brings a fresh and positive energy to the experience for both reader and interviewee alike." Larry Brooks, critically acclaimed author of suspense fiction.

"Aggie Villaneuva's interviews are more perspicacious than most, better researched, and more complete than most you find, even in national periodicals. You'll love her book as much as I do her blog." Carolyn Howard-Johnson, award-winning novelist and author of the HowToDoltFrugally series of books for writers

"Aggie Villanueva persistently acts on her passions...and producing professional interviews, shows through her expertise. Aggie thoroughly researches each subject, and perfects the results into a read that interested viewers tremendously enjoy."

Jo-Anne Vandermeulen, author, book promoter

"Aggie Villanueva sorts through everything she can find on her interviewees, then takes that information and goes right to the heart of their expertise with her insightful questions. Answering her requires the interviewee to dig deeper and discover truths they might not have even known (they know)."

Lynne Gentry, author, actress, acting coach

"I just can't thank you enough. I almost never do interviews, and I'm so pleased that the one I have done (yours) is so good!"

Paula Berinstein, author and producer of The Writing Show

"Her questions allowed me to share not only my background but also things I'd learned along the way. Authors appreciate good interviewers."

Gail Gaymer Martin, best selling, award winning author

Aggie As A Writer

“Along with the rich plot and subplot of the novel, Aggie exhibits a talent for placing the reader in the heart of the bedouin camps, in the very tents and activities of the characters she brings to life, with the economy of words that is the hallmark of a masterful writer. Her characters are full-bodied; her action scenes are tense and exciting; her love scenes are both pure and seductive.”

Linda Yezak, writer, editor, reviewer AuthorCulture

“Villanueva follows no clichéd storyline. She presents an array of plausible characters and includes an intimate look into the lives of some of the most famous biblical heroes, never faltering from uncomfortable historical facts. Her portrayal of a humanity struggling between safety and destiny is touching, palpable, and memorable. This is easily one of the best biblical novels I've ever read.”

K.M. Weiland, author of A Man Called Outlaw, and Behold the Dawn

“She is one of the most admirable people I have met, with a love for life and love for everyone her life's path crosses. Aggie is a woman who grasps each moment, whether it be pain or pleasure. For her, there is nothing more exquisite in life...than life.”

“You have a fantastic way with words, and it's almost mystical your relationship with the camera.”

Just read your interview here (Growing Bolder Insider) and I feel like you're one of my best friends already! I plan to listen to the Aging Outside the Box interview today. Thanks for being an inspiration to all of us.

Margie Middleton, The Devine Miss M

Just wanted to tell you how glad I am to have found your work! I also do “post-processing” to my photographs and I greatly admire your confidence in following your heart. I've been struggling with feeling like I'm not a “real artist” because I create on the computer. So thank you for sharing your world with those of us who are still striving!
